

Since I pay for the telephone in my home, I should have the right to say what kind of phone calls that I want to come into it. I do not buy anything that telemarketers try to sell on the phone and normally hang up or have them to put me on the do not call back list and that doesn't work half of the time.